

EASTER FUN—Judi Tye, 16, Miss Torrance Chamber of Commerce is dressed up like an Easter bunny and holds a basket of goodies to be presented to winners of the Easter Egg hunt in El Prado Park Saturday at 11 a.m. The event is sponsored by the Retail Merchants Division of the Chamber and the Recreation Department. The Torrance Area Youth Band will also give a concert preceding the egg hunt.

Flavian Parents Get Hot 'Scoop'

Parents of students in Mrs. Frances Knowles' second and third classes at Flavian school are getting the 'inside scoop' these days on what happens in the classroom through a student-published newspaper. Each member of the class contributed an article on some phase of class activities. Linda Webster, for instance, wrote that "we are studying about the city. We add and take away in arithmetic. We do good arithmetic. We read and work."

Issue Complaint Against Driver in Boy's Death

A complaint has been issued against the driver of a car involved in an accident which claimed the life of Lyle T. Johnston, 8, of 24671 Pennsylvania Ave. Police said they will file charges of violation of a pedestrian's right-of-way after a coroner's jury held Mrs. Renee Dadinsky, 31, of San Pedro "probably criminally responsible" at an inquest Friday.

The youngster was fatally injured when struck by her car at Crenshaw Blvd. and 236th St., March 2.
